FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONSUL GENERAL OF JAPAN IN DETROIT INTRODUCES HONORARY CONSUL OF JAPAN FOR OHIO DAVID COOK

WHAT: On Wednesday, June 28 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., Consul General Mitsuhiro Wada will host a reception to introduce Mr. David Cook as the Honorary Consul of Japan in Ohio. The event will take place in the lobby of the law firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP in Columbus.

Mr. Cook is a partner at the Columbus office of the law firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP. He specializes in immigration and naturalization law for businesses and individuals. Prior to joining Vorys et al., Mr. Cook served as Senior Assistant Counsel to Honda of America Manufacturing, Inc., responsible for the company's visa and immigration matters. He also served as the Director of the Columbus Council on World Affairs for 13 years. Mr. Cook has a B.A. in Economics/Japanese from Brigham Young University and J.D. from the University of Washington School of Law.

The role of an Honorary Consul is to assist the mission of the Consulate-General office in promoting U.S.-Japan relations and protecting the welfare of local Japanese residents. Mr. Cook's five-year term is from April 10, 2017 through April 10, 2022.

Consul General Wada remarked, "Mr. Cook brings to this post unique skills gained from his close association to Japan for more than 35 years and legal expertise in all matters of immigration. With his understanding of the cultures and people of both Japan and the U.S., Mr. Cook is the ideal choice to assist us in supporting the friendship between Japan and Ohio."

Japan is the largest foreign investor in Ohio, with 482 Japanese facilities directly employing more than 73,400 people in the state. There are more than 2,300 university students and 1,300 K-12 students currently studying Japanese in Ohio's schools. In addition, there are sixteen active sister/friendship city relationships with Japan, and a sister state partnership with Saitama Prefecture dating back to 1990.
