

Japanese Language Education in Michigan

K-12 Schools that Offer Japanese Language Courses (Spring semester, 2012)

- 51 schools in Michigan offer Japanese language courses at the K-12 level.
- 3,743 students are enrolled in Japanese language courses at the K-12 level.
 - 34 high schools offer Japanese language courses with a total of 1,899 high school students enrolled in Japanese in Michigan.
 - 17 elementary and middle schools offer Japanese language courses with a total of 1,819 elementary and middle school students enrolled in Japanese in Michigan.

4-year College and University Undergraduate Japanese Language Programs (Fall semester, 2011)

- 16 colleges and universities offer Japanese language programs.
- 7 schools offer majors in Japanese language.
- 12 schools offer minors in Japanese language, 7 of which also offer majors in Japanese language.
- 2,152 students are enrolled in Japanese language courses.
- 310 students are currently majoring in Japanese language.
- 328 students currently have minors in Japanese language.
- 137 Japanese courses are being taught in Fall, 2011.
Students majoring in a great variety of different subjects study Japanese. Popular subjects include: Asian Studies, Engineering, Business, Foreign Languages, International Studies, Linguistics, English and Psychology.

Post-Graduate Japan-Related Programs (Fall semester, 2011)

- 2 schools offer post-graduate studies in Japan-related programs.
- Approximately 85 students are enrolled in post-graduate Japan-related programs. Japan-related programs are not limited to Japanese language study, but to any type of Japan-related studies.

Community College Japanese Courses (Fall semester, 2011)

- Some community colleges, including Lansing Community College and Oakland Community College, offer Japanese language courses.
- 224 community college students are enrolled in Japanese language courses.

The Consulate General of Japan in Detroit conducted a survey of colleges, universities, and K-12 schools in Michigan. Please note that statistics for colleges, universities, community colleges and graduate schools are current to the best of our knowledge as of December, 2011. Please note that statistics for K-12 schools are current to the best of our knowledge as of April, 2012. Please feel free to contact us with additional information.*