Consulate Shares Information Updates During COVID-19 Pandemic

During the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Consulate General of Japan in Detroit is posting updates in Japanese and English on its website and Facebook page.

Visitors to the official English website of the Government of Japan can view the Prime Minister's press conferences and learn more about how Japan's government is addressing the novel coronavirus.

Japan's Ministry of Health, Labor, & Welfare also posts updates on its website, and the Japan National Tourist Organization has a website with updates about travel restrictions and so on.

Until further notice, the lobby of the Consulate General of Japan in Detroit will be open as follows:

- Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays (only 3 days/week)
- 9:15-11:15 am and 1:00-4:00 pm

Visitors are asked to make an appointment with the Consular Section (313-567-0120) well in advance, to facilitate social-distancing in the waiting area.

We apologize for any inconvenience caused by event postponements or cancellations, or by reduced staff availability at our office, during this time.
